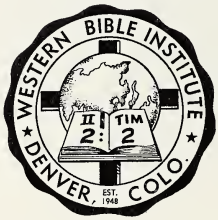
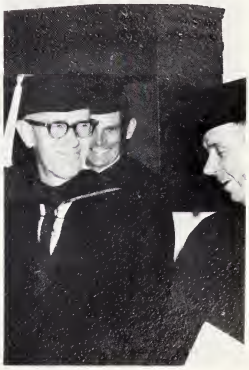
Ye Are My Witnesses



Dedication

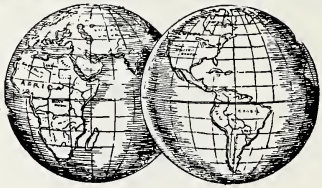


Floyd S. McCague

Mr. Mac, our hearts are warmed with every remembrance of you. The library with your many donated books, causes our minds to reflect on days gone by when we were led through the Scriptures and personally introduced to the shepherds, kings, queens, prophets, and the rest of your friends there. The many practical applications you made from the lives of those men and women of God only increased our desire to be faithful witnesses for the Lord.

We shall continue to be grateful for the way in which you were always available to anyone who needed help or guidance. For the unselfish service you have rendered to the Lord Jesus Christ, and to the students, faculty and staff of Western Bible Institute, we, in Christian love and with great pleasure, do dedicate to you, the 1964 issue of "LIVES AGLOW". Our affectionate wish for you is that your future days of ministering may be filled with opportunity and blessing.

A Message from the President . . .



CARL C. HARWOOD JR.

Dear Graduates of 1964:

The Bible reminds me of an office dictating machine. God has spoken into it, and as we read its pages, they transfer His living words to us. There are many things in the Bible which at first we may not be able to understand, because, as the heaven is higher than the earth, so are God's thoughts higher than ours. Charles Haddon Spurgeon used to say to his students in London, that when he ate fish he did not attempt to swallow the bones, but he put them aside on his plate.

The Bible contains 10,000 promises -- it is God's book of signed checks. When you have found a promise which meets your need, do not ask God to keep His promise, as though He were unwilling to do so, but present it humbly in the Name of Jesus. Be sure that, as far as you know, you are fulfilling any conditions which may be attached; then look up into the face of your Heavenly Father, and tell Him you are reckoning on Him to do as He has said. It is for Him to choose the time and the manner of His answer; but wait quietly, be patient, and you will find that not a moment too late, God's response will be given.

"My soul, wait thou only upon God, for my expectation is from Him."
(Psalm 62:5)

DEGREE GRADUATES

The Lord has been pleased to bless Western Bible Institute so that years have witnessed a consistent growth, not only in numbers and campus facilities, but also in the curriculum offered. This year inaugurates still another milestone in this maturity as we confer, for the first time, the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Bible. (Minors are offered to those who desire to specialize in Sacred Music, Missions, Christian Education or Pastoral Ministry.) This degree indicates that hours, weeks, and months of time have been set aside in diligent laborious preparation to serve the Lord more efficiently. To Jandy and Gene we wish God-speed as they set out into the unknown future, hand-in-hand with the Lord who has proved Himself so faithful in these preparatory years. We trust that milestones will be set in coming years of serving and "making Christ known."

THREE YEAR DIPLOMA GRADUATES

Western Bible Institute offers a diploma upon the completion of 3 years of specified Bible study. The concern is not in academic attainments alone but in the molding of the lives of the men and women in order that they might have a thorough understanding and ability in handling the Word of God and a practical outliving of it's truths. Whether in Jerusalem, Samaria, all of Judea or even in the uttermost part of the world, may the witness of these graduates be such that would bring honor and glory to the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

"NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE"

THE CORONATION CHOIR

Forty singers selected from the student body to train and sing in such a way as to properly portray the Gospel in song. It becomes an inspirational "class" where training is given in voice principles, public deportment and above all, in Spiritual expression.

The choir gives three Festivals during the school year, and appears in the evening services of local churches. Also, the choir takes an Easter tour covering at least three States.
